GREEK LIQUEURS

All LIQUEURS are £2.00 for 35ml shots

TENTURA VANTANA Especial Quality is a unique liqueur made of cinnamon and clove extractions, with hints of nutmeg and a soft presence of citrus fruits. Tentura has slight digestive attributes and is usually served after dinner on the rocks. You can also enjoy Tentura with soda or tonic.

TSIPOURO is THE traditional and THE genuine distillate of pure grapes coming from Greece, and it is synonymous to the Greek hospitality and the pride of the Greek people. Served in shot glasses, very cold, enjoy it with your Tapas or on it's own with a few olives and feta cheese.

MASTIHA is another traditional Greek digestif. The finest grape liqueurs are flavoured with the resin of the Mastic tree to give the alcoholic drink its distinctive taste. Mastiha liqueur has a sweet smell and a flavour similar to liquorice. It is best enjoyed after meals, cold or at room temperature but always with ice.

PARPAROUSSI is a Greek brandy of unique aromas and complex characteristics, able to hold its own alongside the finest French cognacs. Distilled from the mythical "Sideritis" grape and aged for 12 years in oak barrels, Parparoussis is best enjoyed after dinner, served slightly warmed.
